Movement Workshops In April and May by Jumblied & SAWITRI Theatre Group

JUMBLIES
 + Arts; in partnership with FLOURISH (UoFT, Scarborough)

SAWITRI Theatre Group will be offering movement workshops April and May.

Over 1.5 to 2 hours, participants will learn vocabulary rooted in the ancient traditions of Kalari and Afro-contemporary dance. Led by Brandy Leary (Anandam Dance) and Jillia Cato (Kashe Dance), participants will explore the themes of borders and border crossings over 4 sessions and will (if desired), have the opportunity to perform as part of the Jumblied's event on June 15th.

Open to youth (12+) and seniors, the workshops are free of cost. No prior experience of dance is necessary.

Registration is required as we have limited spots.

For more information, write to: info@jumbliedtheatre.org

Thank you to all the applicants of the Mississauga Multilingual Fringe Festival 2024

We thank all the applicants for sending in their entries for the Mississauga Multilingual Fringe Festival 2024. We are happy to see applications from artists across Canada and are delighted to bring together people from diverse lingual and geographical regions.
