Unspoken Love

February is round the corner and love is in the air, whether it's Valentine's Day or Family Day. Come celebrate it with us. SAWITRI Theatre presents

Rangaal Theatre Company's production, a Valentine's special!

"Unspoken Love" is a soulful night of music, poetry, theatre and romance. In Hindi and in Marathi.

Play-reading session is back in Mississauga!

After a brief hiatus, Nautanki Bazaar in partnership with SAWITRI Theatre Group is proud to present the reading of 'Party' by Mahesh Elkunchwar on Friday 28th February, 2025 from 7 pm to 9 pm at AN1 Studios – 2654, Cawthra Rd, Unit 132, Mississauga.

'PARTY' - A planned social gathering is held to commemorate Divakar Barve for the award he receive pertaining his contributions to Indian Arts and films. The social event is greeted by some important public personalities of the community all expect Amrit; an activist. But the atmosphere of the event will come to a drastic change upon the arrival of Avinash.

The play was made into a 1984 film by Govind Nihalani, starring Om Puri, Rohini Hattangadi, Manohar Singh, Deepa Sahi and Amreesh Puri, with Naseeruddin Shah in the role of Amrit.

Mahesh Elkunchwar (born 9 October 1939) is an Indian playwright and screenplay writer in Marathi language with more than 20 plays to his name, in addition to his theoretical writings, critical works, and his active work in India's Parallel Cinema as actor and screenwriter. Along with Vijay Tendulkar, he is credited as one of the most influential and progressive playwrights not just in Marathi theatre, but also in Indian theatre. In 2014, he was awarded the Sangeet Natak Akademi Fellowship, the highest honour in performing arts in India.
